

I do not want to see cell phones used on flights for the following reasons:

There is no hard evidence that cell phone use doesn't interfere with navigational instruments.

Cell phone use would enable terrorists to coordinate a plan of action more effectively.

The NPRM would leave it up to flight attendants to police the use of cell phones onboard the aircraft compromising our ability to maintain a safe, secure cabin environment and to conduct emergency evacuations.

It would make an already tense cabin environment even more stressful.

For all of these reasons, I feel it is in the best interest of the flying public that we do not allow the use of cellular telephones in flight.

Thank you for allowing me to state my opinions.

Sincerely,

Darren B. Wallace
